

CERVICAL CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Cervical cancer is the cancer of the cervix where abnormal cells grow on the cervix region.

4th most common cancer type in women

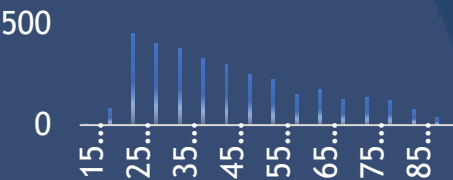

One women dies of cervical cancer every 8 minutes

<50

Most cases of cervical cancer are found in women under 50

CERVICAL CANCER RATES BY AGE

CAUSES

HPV(Human Papilloma Virus) is the main cause.

1 in 50

Indian women suffers from cervical cancer.

SYMPTOMS

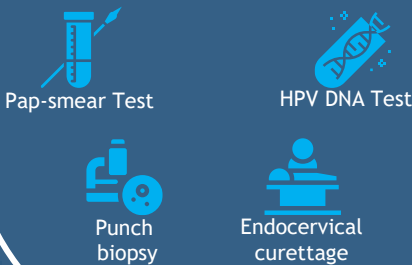

Common Symptoms

Rare Symptoms

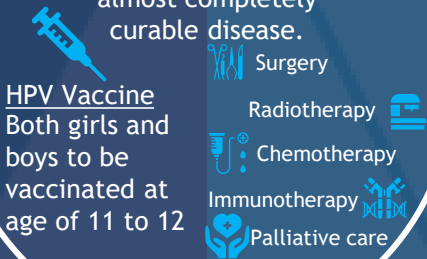

DIAGNOSIS

The best protection is early detection.

PREVENTION & TREATMENT

Cervical cancer is an almost completely curable disease.

Screening guidelines

21 to 29 years old

At age 21, start getting Pap tests, Repeat every 3 years.

30 to 65 years old

Begin co-testing (HPV+PAP test) every 5 years.

65+ years old

Stop screening if you have had normal results for several years.

5 minutes of smear test that matters.

CERVICAL SCREENING SAVES LIVES

#END CERVICAL CANCER

1 in 3 women miss their smear test. Book yours today.

GET SCREENED , GET VACCINATED
BE AWARE , BE SAFE

