

CME on Gynaecology cancer awareness

The Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, AIIMS Bibinagar organised a CME on 3rd September to raise awareness regarding prevention and early diagnosis of gynaecologic cancers. The program included discussions regarding screening of Cervical cancer, vaccination against HPV, hereditary cancer syndromes and risk reduction strategies in genetically predisposed individuals.

