

The Dept of Radiation Oncology in collaboration with the College of Nursing, AIIMS Bibinagar, organized a Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) programme

The Dept of Radiation Oncology in collaboration with the College of Nursing, AIIMS Bibinagar, organized a Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) programme on the occasion of National Cancer Awareness Day – 2025. The theme of the program, “Enhancing Nursing Competencies in Cancer Prevention & Management,” aimed to strengthen the clinical knowledge & skills of nurses in early cancer detection, holistic care, & rehabilitation. Dr. Ajay Kumar, Assoc Prof & HOD, Radiation Oncology, extended a warm welcome to all dignitaries & participants, highlighting the importance of multidisciplinary collaboration in cancer management. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Prof. Amita Aggarwal, Executive Director, AIIMS Bibinagar, she emphasized the vital role of nurses in delivering compassionate, evidence-based cancer care. She highlighted the importance of continuous learning, teamwork, & empathy in improving patient outcomes. Prof. Amita Aggarwal commended the collaborative efforts in strengthening oncology nursing capacity at AIIMS Bibinagar. Prof Nitin John, Dean A & Dr. Maheshwar Lakkireddy, MS, whose words of encouragement inspired the participants to advance nursing-led cancer care initiatives. Prof. Latha P., Principal, College of Nursing, the CNE was effectively coordinated to enhance the professional competence of nurses in cancer care. The CNE witnessed enthusiastic participation from nursing professionals from Indo-American Cancer Hospital, MNJ Institute of Oncology, ESIC Medical College & Hospital Sanath Nagar & AIIMS Bibinagar. Expert sessions by Pathology oncology, psychiatric, community medicine & senior nursing faculties focused on early detection strategies patient-centred oncology nursing practices, pain management, palliative care, & rehabilitation strategies. The Continuing Nursing Education programme was recognized by the Telangana State Nursing and Midwives Council (TSNMC), reaffirming its academic and professional & for nursing credit hours. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. A. Serma Subathra, Organizing Secretary, College of Nursing.

