

National Symposium on Diabetic Retinopathy

All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Bibinagar , on Tuesday 24th August conducted National Symposium on Diabetic Retinopathy by the department of Ophthalmology in coordination with departments of General Medicine and Community Medicine & Family Medicine, to raise awareness on Diabetic retinopathy.

The event is graced by Executive Director Dr.Vikas Bhatia , Padma Shri Professor S Natarajan, Dean Dr.Rahul Narang, Medical Superintendent Dr Neeraj Agarwal.

Executive Director stressed about the importance of early screening to prevent permanent blindness due to Diabetes. Dr.S Natarajan took a brief review on Diabetic retinopathy, its management and also discussed about his research on Portable fundus camera to diagnose Diabetic retinopathy in rural background.

Dr. Arvind Kumar Morya discussed about his innovation on the “World first artificial annotation tool to detect diabetic retinopathy over smart phone”.

Dr. Rashmi Kundapur, spoke about the global pandemic of Diabetes whereas Dr.Shakti Vadivel , gave insight about the management of Diabetes Mellitus in relevance to Retinopathy. Dr.Siddharam S Janti , has given insight about the etiology and clinical features of Diabetic retinopathy and Dr Kolavali Raghavendra Rao spoke about the role of Intravitreal injections in management of Diabetic retinopathy.

