

AIIMS Bibinagar Observes Vigilance Awareness Week 2026 with a Session on Ethics, Integrity and Public Accountability

As part of #VigilanceAwarenessWeek2026, AIIMS Bibinagar organised a session on CCS (Conduct) Rules & Conflict of Interest on 26 Oct, led by Dr. Krishna Gopal Goyal, Commissioner (Vigilance), CBDT. Promoting integrity, accountability & ethical public service. Dr. Goyal sensitised participants to the laws, rules, and responsibilities governing public service. He explained the significance of Vigilance Awareness Week, observed annually during the last week of October in commemoration of the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, and elaborated on this year's theme, "Probity for Prosperity."

He clarified the distinction between the CCS (Conduct) Rules and CCS (CCA) Rules, explaining the importance of appropriate conduct, discipline, integrity, and accountability among government employees. He also discussed the differences between ethics, morality, and legality, emphasising the importance of ethical behaviour and personal integrity in public service. He discussed preventive and punitive vigilance, the role of technology in preventive vigilance, and the applicability of conduct rules to autonomous institutions such as AIIMS under the AIIMS Act, 1956, and relevant institutional regulations. Particular emphasis was placed on Rule 3 of the CCS (Conduct) Rules, which requires government servants to maintain absolute integrity, honesty, devotion to duty, efficiency, and good behaviour.
