

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, AIIMS, Bibinagar conducts intercollege quiz competition on World Contraception Day

Under the auspices of Dr Vikas Bhatia (Executive Director), Dr Rahul Narang (Dean) and Dr Neeraj Agarwal (Medical Superintendent), an intercollege Quiz was organised by the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology on the occasion of World Contraception Day, 26th September 2022. Students from Apollo medical college, ESIC Medical college, Kakatiya medical college Warangal and AIIMS Bibinagar participated in the competition.

The objective of the quiz, in line with the mission of World contraception day was to improve awareness regarding contraception and its importance among our young budding doctors, in a fun filled manner.
