

First multidisciplinary health camp organized by AIIMS Bibinagar at Rural Health Training Centre (RHTC) Bommalaramaram on

14th December 2021

First multidisciplinary health camp was organized by AIIMS Bibinagar at Rural Health Training Centre (RHTC) Bommalaramaram on 14th December 2021 by the Health Camp Committee under the direction and aegis of Executive Director Dr. Vikas Bhatia.

The health camp aimed to provide holistic care to the rural areas in and around AIIMS Bibinagar. The event started with invoking the blessings of almighty by lamp lighting and welcome of all the dignitaries who graced the occasion with their august presence – Dr. Vikas. Bhatia, Executive Director, AIIMS, Bibinagar, Dr. Neeraj Agarwal, Medical Superintendent, Prof and Head , Department of Community and Family medicine(CMFM), Dr. Sravan Kumar, Medical officer, PHC, Bommalaramaram, Mr. Jyoti Kumar Mandal Special officer, Dr. Samba Shiva Rao, DMHO, Bhuvangiri, Mrs. Padmasundari, Tahsildar, Mrs. B Saritha, Mandal development officer, Dr. Kranti Medical officer, Dr. Kranti Kumar, Ayush Medical Officer, and Dr. Venkat Raja Divis laboratories.

Dr. Vikas Bhatia affirmed that AIIMS, Bibinagar stands to provide exceptional services in all health care specialties to the people of Telangana. He also advised everyone to continue COVID-precautions and COVID safe practices in the wake of the new Omicron variant. He appreciated the efforts of Health camps committee. Dr.Bhatia also mentioned that RHTC, Bommalaramaram will soon be the satellite campus of AIIMS Bibinagar and will continue to impart its quality and excellent health care services to the community.

Dr. Neeraj Agarwal congratulated the health camps committee for successfully executing a camp for the benefit of masses which will build on the confidence of the community .

Mr.Jyotikumar Mandal emphasized that chronic non communicable diseases are a huge problem and congratulated the AIIMS, Bibinagar team for taking effective measures in creating awareness about the same. Dr. Samba Shiva Rao congratulated AIIMS Bibinagar for its concerted efforts for providing service always even during the second wave of COVID-19 pandemic and reiterated that the this collaboration should be continued for better health care provision to the community.

The camp saw a total of 246 patients who were treated by a team of specialists comprising of faculty, residents and nursing officers from departments of General medicine, General Surgery, Paediatrics, ENT, Orthopaedics and CMFM.

