

AIIMS Bibinagar Hyderabad CFM Department

Organised Panel Discussion on 8th April

Best practices in family medicine executed by respective departments were presented by faculty members. It was for the first time that nearly all INIs deliberated upon. Over 280 participants discussed and shared the views. With active participation of Family medicine and Primary health care team, it was wonderful experience.

